The school Homecoming came and went with Mark Wepking and Marilyn Renninger as our representatives. Our Fair representatives were Bonnie Tarrell and Tom Kratochwill. Bonnie Tarrell and Mike Ray were our Prom representatives. Our Freshman year came to an end and after a year's experience we looked forward to our Sophomore year. During our first year we had lost two classmates, Lee Ann Bushey and Wayne Fredericks, and gained four, Mike Ray, Edward, Ruth, and Russell Jones.

We came back to school after summer vacation on August 31. As Sophomores our class officers were President--Danny Laufenberg, Vice President--Mike Ray, Secretary--Judy Anderson, and Treasurer--Dennis Stepanek. Our Student Council members were Mark Wepking and Bonnie Tarrell. Kathy Roun and Don Imhoff were our representatives for the Fair. Our Homecoming that year was represented by Danny Laufenberg and Mary Jean McGuire. We had a Sno-ball our Sophomore year with Judy Anderson and Don Imhoff on the Court. The best years of our lives have just passed beyond us as we find ourselves ready to face the world as young adults, the Class of "'64."

CLASS PROPHECY

Dear Mary, I just got back from my trip to Europe. It certainly was a thrilling experience. You'll never guess who I met on the plane--it was Joan Nondorf. Joan married that cute fella she was going with in high school. She was on her way to Germany to buy stock for Oscar Mayer. We had a real long talk on the plane. We started talking about our old classmates and I sure was amazed to find out what they all were doing. I suppose you know JIM RILEY is head psychiatrist at the "You're Out of Your Head" institution back in Madison. I always knew Jim was the man for that type job. MARY ANN HIGGINS is now owner of the Puppies Kennel in Hollywood. Maryann did have a love for dogs. Joan told me Don Laufenberg was making money left and right selling trailers. Sounds like a pretty good business. I see DENNIS STEPANEK has the number one song all over the nation. Dennis sure has come a long way since high school. I sure was happy to hear about Elaine Egger's success as being first lady of the Navy. Her husband is an Admiral. Jane Bock married her chiropractor. Remember how Jane fell for him? Lois Bosch and Joyce Kilby have gone into partnership. Lois is a Home Economics teacher in Madison. While Lois cooks, Joyce takes care of the ailing. Ed Jones has made his first million making that "greasy kid stuff." Jim Shemak is testing cars for speed. I heard he got the latest to go 250 mph. Mike Ray is an award winning actor for Warner Bros. Mike got his big start in the Senior Homecoming Skit. Bonnie Tarrell has changed her name to Bonnie Terrible. I always thought she would stick to the farm. Dave Lee has taken over Obma Studios and has won Camera Man of the Year Award. Carol Winkers and Arlene Nihles have a beauty salon in New York. Their motto is "Bleach it because Blondes have more fun and we your hairdressers wouldn't tell a soul." Say is Marge Kitsemble still the cleaning lady in Madison? I haven't seen her since we graduated. Did you go to Rita and Kenric's wedding? He's superintendent of Mount Ida Schools now you know. Dick Esser is game warden in Iowa County. It certainly was nice of him to pass that bill allowing for year-round deer season. Tom Kratochwill is still a private in the Army. I heard from someone that he keeps going A.W.O.L. He must think he's still back in high school. Ruth Jones is staying home taking care of her little brother to the best of her ability. Don Wolfe is now owner of the "Alabi" at Montfort. Cheryll McGuire is living in the Black Hills, where her husband is stationed in the Air Force. Jeff Weyer is an Agriculture Professor at the State University. Danny Laufenberg has taken over The Cobb Canning Factory. He has reduced working hours and boosted the pay. Morris Honer is the owner of a Texas Cattle Ranch and he also has three oil wells. Mrs. Pierick, the former Kathy Roum, is a confirmed farmer's wife now. I saw Linda Ramsden about a month ago. Linda and her husband are making "cheese" in a nearby factory. Jim Esser has taken over his dad's farm and he and his wife have six little Essers. Bueford Foley is one of the head designers of Plymouth cars. He has invented the new springable doors and I guess they were a real hit. Mike McGuire is a famous artist now living in Paris, France. Kathy Gottschall has come a long way. She is editor of the Wisconsin State Journal. Patrick Scullion has written a dictionary of big words. Mark Wepking is "Bowling Champ" all over the state. Mark always did have a knack for bowling.

Well I have to hurry and catch the next plane to Reno. My Lonely Hearts Club is doing fine. I hope you and Don Imhoff are both fine. You should be doing well financially, since the price of pigs has gone up. Well write when you can.

Love, Judy

Jorna,
"Won't be long now." Best wishes in your next three years. We've had fun in the last three.
your cousin a friend,
Diana

"Pewter"
I've known
you for three years,
but it seems longer.
In these three years we've told each other a few stories, & stories & stories & more stories. We really had fun the day we went for a ride with Lloyd, up to Highland, then to Cobb, then to Monfort, back to Highland, down to Adoca, then to Muscodax at the rootbeer stand. We'll have to look forward to our other rides too. May we always be friends in our three years, & may we always may God bless you, & keep you safe. Lots of luck in the future. (I give up - tell me) A friend (I hope) always,
Butter
"biff"

Jorna!!!
Well I guess that's just about the last of our first year together. I'll all I can say is that you're really had a blast this year and let's keep it that way for the next three. O.K. 20/20

It's been nice knowing you too!
Mary J

Jorna!!!
Look at Diana's yearbook.
I sure had a lot of fun with you this year. When I first came over here I was afraid to make acquaintances with you because I thought you were a brain, you are a brain, but most of all you don't let anyone know it except when we get in class. I hope we have as much fun as we did this year especially in the lunch hall.
May God Bless you and you need His blessings. HAN! HAN!
